Oh, the Humanities!

Media Kit

Updated November 2020

Contact: Kathleen Scholz-Jaffe, kscholzjaffe@thirdchapter.org

OVERVIEW

This 2020 Media Kit for Oh, the Humanities! reflects updated information captured from the circulation formerly developed as the media and communications effort by ACLS Humanities E Book. It is now part of the Third Chapter Project, Inc. (a 501c3 nonprofit supporting humanities in underserved communities worldwide). Oh, the Humanities! is a monthly e-newsletter on topics of interest to librarians and academic faculty in the areas of social sciences and humanities. Oh, the Humanities! is free to readers and provides insights and points of view related to curricula, academic materials and dissemination that stimulates thinking about teaching in these subject areas.

The Publication

Oh, the Humanities! (“OTH”) is published in HTML and emailed to recipients directly to their professional inbox. Current readership research shows that OTH has an open rate of ~20% per issue and that the opt-out rate is less than 1% per year.

Circulation

Oh, the Humanities! is delivered to over 19,000 monthly readers who are located at universities, colleges (two and four year) and theological seminaries globally. This circulation is based on attendance at leading library and academic conferences. The newsletter is two pages in length, carrying approximately four articles per month and is originally written by staff and includes articles contributed by library and academic staff.

Geographic Distribution

84% are USA based and 16% worldwide

Circulation

- Librarians: 46%
- Faculty: 62%
- Other: 2% - including key contacts at 50 North American library consortia: consortia at the national, regional and state levels.
- Of the above, 20% are directly and 80% are indirectly responsible for buying decisions

Readership

The readership of Oh, the Humanities! has been developed through lists, event participation, membership in one or more of the societies that make up the American Council of Learned Societies and institutional subscribers to the ACLS Humanities E Book collection. The list also comprises librarians and library staff who have attended and visited us at one of the major library conferences such as ALA, ACRL, ERL, ATLA, ARLIS, Charleston Conference and smaller regional library consortium conferences. We have been incorporating ACLS fellows and grantees.
